Dear Col. Scott.—Dear Mr. W. H. Slocum, most respectfully request you to accept my regards.

Col. Scott.—I am to appear before the Circuit court for this city, I am instructed to ask the favor of your protection, and to give you my thanks for the grand jury at the session of this term of court. Believing that you will do all in your power to protect me, and that its publication will result in the publication of your name, I trust that you will trust that you will not withhold it from me.

With respect, I remain yours,

Jesse M. Tava,

Secretary of the Grand Jury.

Memphis, February 16, 1860.

Jesse M. Tava, Secretary of the Grand Jury.

Dear Col. Scott.—I have been requested and while I have endeavored to do so, to convey my thoughts and feelings unreservedly before the public, to do so would be to regard the charge which it deserved.

If there be anything in it which I have done, I hope that it may be fully excused, and that it may be fully excused by the consideration of the grand jury.

Please tender, etc., to your associates the regards of your best service.

CHARLES BOYCE.

A Char. Advertised to the Grand Jury, by Mr. Kierans.

I regret very much of the position which has been conferred upon me by the grand jury, and the performance of the duty which it has imposed upon me.

But I have done my best to do my duty faithfully and impartially. As conservator of the law, I have done my best to do my duty faithfully and impartially.

But I have done my best to do my duty faithfully and impartially.

But I have done my best to do my duty faithfully and impartially.
